EMPLOYERS

INFORMATION/STRATEGIES

CORPORATE PRACTICE

Any large corporation (largest number of attorneys are at corporate headquarters)

Corporate office summer clerkships and entry level positions are rare.

Usually only experienced lawyers are hired by corporations. Develop tolerance for bureaucratic procedure.

An undergraduate major in business, particularly accounting or finance, is helpful.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Most government branches have legal counsel
Judge Advocate General's (JAG) Corps for all branches of the military

Get involved with an internship or co-op program with the federal government to get a foot in the door.

New lawyers frequently go to court and litigate sooner; experience gained here can be valuable to private firms later.

Government work offers a variety of practice opportunities from criminal to contracts.

JUDICIAL CLERKSHIPS

Federal Court
State Court

Federal Courts of Appeal and District Court
(trial) Judges and Magistrates, Bankruptcy and Administrative Law Judges
State Courts of Appeal and Trial Level Judges
Federal and State Court Clerkships for Collective Judges in a Court

High academic achievement is emphasized by State and Federal judges; Federal judges usually require top 10% or 15% class rank.

Clerkships can be a stepping-stone to other legal areas and provide many benefits for future career opportunities.

For U.S. Supreme Court, applicants must be top law graduates with one to two years clerking at lower Federal Court.

Moot Court participation in regional and national competitions is helpful.

Law review membership, as an indication of writing ability, is highly valued and emphasized at all court levels.
