NEW ASSOCIATE DEGREES FOR TRANSFER

ART HISTORY

Associate of Arts for Transfer Degree

(STATE CODE 35975)

Associate Degree requirements must be completed with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (C) or better.

This degree is intended for students transferring to a California State University campus. It is not a requirement for transfer but may give students an admission advantage at some CSU campuses. Not all CSU campuses accept this degree as fulfillment of lower-division major requirements. Students should meet with a counselor to determine if this degree is a good option for them. Information on which CSU campuses accept this degree can be found at <http://www.sb1440.org/>

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer Degree (AA-T in Art History) is intended for students who plan to transfer and complete a bachelor's degree in Studio Art - Art with an Emphasis or Concentration in Art History at a CSU campus. Students completing the AA-T in Art History are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not necessarily to a particular CSU campus or major of their choice. Students should consult with a counselor for more information on university admission and transfer requirements as this AA-T in Art History may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to a college or university that is not part of the CSU system.

To complete the degree, students must fulfill the following Associate Degree for Transfer requirements (pursuant to SB1440):

- Completion of 60 semester units or 90 quarter units that are eligible for transfer to a California State University.
- The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education – Breadth Requirements.
- A minimum of 18 semester units or 27 quarter units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.
- Obtainment of a minimum grade point average of 2.0.
- A grade of “C” or better (or “P” if the course is taken on a pass/no pass basis) in all courses required for the major or area of emphasis.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this program, students will:

- Articulate foundational knowledge of the history of art, inclusive of methods, media and cultural context.
- Demonstrate functional levels of drawing skills with varied media and subjects.

- Demonstrate a working vocabulary articulating concepts as they relate to studio applications.
- Demonstrate functional levels of painting.
- Demonstrate an understanding of two- and/or three-dimensional design concepts, vocabulary, materials and processes through the construction of two- and/or three-dimensional objects or images.

NEW ASSOCIATE DEGREE

CHICANO STUDIES

Associate of Arts Degree

(STATE CODE 36044)

Associate Degree requirements must be completed with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (C) or better.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The A.A. in Chicano Studies provides an excellent background for students interested in a variety of careers. A multi-disciplinary program, Chicano Studies offers courses in the Social Sciences, Humanities, and Basic Skills Development. The program generates an awareness and understanding of Mexican Americans in the United States.

A student may obtain an Associate of Arts Degree in Chicano Studies by successfully completing 24 units or more in addition to satisfying graduation requirements.

The Chicano Studies A.A. provides optimal preparation for students interested in careers in education, humanities, anthropology, sociology, psychology, social sciences, political sciences, law, social work, business, the arts, private sector and public administration.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Completing the Associate Degree does not necessarily meet the university-admission requirements for transfer. An Associate Degree is not a requirement for transfer to either the CSU or UC campuses. Private and out-of-state colleges and universities have unique transfer requirements. However, if you would like to transfer to a university and earn an associate degree, early educational planning can make this goal achievable. You should meet with a counselor early in your studies to develop an Educational Plan that fulfills both transfer requirements and associate degree requirements.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

The A.A. degree in Chicano Studies is designed to expose students to a rigorous curriculum that incorporates courses in the social sciences, art, and literature specifically related to the history, culture, and contributions of persons of Mexican descent living in the United States, and their interactions with society.

The major in Chicano Studies provides an in depth understanding of the historical experiences, contemporary social status, challenges, and accomplishments of Chicanas and Chicanos in the United States. A multi-disciplinary program, Chicano Studies provides critical thinking and effective oral and written communication skills are integrated across the curriculum, which incorporates arts and literature, cultural studies, history, social sciences, policy studies, politics, music, cinema and service learning.

The degree program is particularly relevant to students who wish to pursue working and/or interacting environments with high concentrations of Chicanas and Chicanos. Culturally relevant curriculum provides a deep understanding of Chicano contributions in mainstream U.S. society.

The Chicano Studies major provides knowledge that is useful in many different careers, such as: journalism, marketing, community and housing development, radio and television, health and medicine, community and union organizing, social work, and a wide variety of positions in federal, state, and local governments as well as those at the city and county levels. The Chicano Studies major provides excellent preparation for students interested in careers in education, law, social welfare, public administration and/or business.
